

Bill Ritter (left) shows his All-American form in floor exercises. Sophomore Steve Hot does his stuff on the low horse (above). Guys from other schools (right) shouldn't even try to fly.

The Parallel Bars prove to be no trouble for Bill Ritter (left). A Falcon gymnast (below) does his floor work with poise.

poise and desire

The entire 1971-72 gymnastics team should return for the 72-73 season as there were no seniors on this year's team. In spite of their youth, the team posted an impressive 9-2 record including a win over the "Mules" of the Military Academy. After winning the NCAA Independent Championships for the third straight year, the team moved on to the NCAA Finals and finished in sixth place, one up from the previous season. All-American Bill Ritter placed sixth in the Finals to end his junior year achievements. Other people that can be expected to contribute in the coming season are John Rabins, a rings event specialist, and Steve Hot, an all-round gymnast.

