Despite a deceiving 4-3 dual meet record, coach Karl Schwenzfeier's gymnastics team appeared to be the school's best ever.

The Falcons captured the NCAA Western Independent Championships and placed seventh in the nationals. John Tomich took All-America honors in the vaulting competition in the national championships.

High point of the season came on Feb. 24 when the team lost to Colorado State, yet set a team scoring record of 161.30. The team also scored 160 points in defeating service rival Army.
