

1988-89 Men's Gymnastics Team

Men's Gymnastics

Men place third in WAC finals Comeau takes first on Pommel Horse

The men's gymnastics team finished with a 6-4 record and third place in the WAC Championships. Highlight performances for Air Force included Paul Comeau, a WAC champion, taking first place on the pommel horse. Sven Brown, the first gymnast to make the NCAA finals since Mike Otomo in 1979, finished ninth in the nation on rings. Highlighting team competition was the win over Army this season, the first time since 1983.

Above: Randall McHenry demonstrates his flexibility!

1988-89 Men's Gymnastics Team

Above: Chris Mauk, Team Cap

88-89 Women's Gymnastics Team

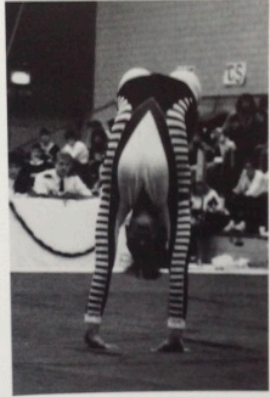

Women's Gymnastics

The women's gymnastics team finished the season eighth at the United States Gymnastics Federation Nationals in San Luis Obispo, Calif. This is the first time ever for the women's gymnastics to qualify for nationals as a team. The women qualified by finishing fourth in the regionals. Freshman Michelle Carson earned All-American honors by finishing third on the bars with 9.45. All-American Marlena Ventresca finished 25th in the all-around competition.

Women finish 8th in USG Federation
Women qualify as national team

Top left: Preparing for a tumble.

Far left: Great concentration is required for a safe landing.

Above: Spectators watch in awe as the human body is twisted in ways never thought possible.

Above: And for the finale, a spectacular dismount.

88-89 Women's Gymnastics Team

Marlena Ventresca, Team Captain